You are invited to a Waka Toa Ora seminar:

Public Health Update : COVID-19

Dr Anna Stevenson, Medical Officer of Health, CDHB

In January this year COVID-19 first became known to the world. Since that time our regional public health unit - Community and Public Health, a division of Canterbury District Health Board - has been responding to the disease, protecting the community, monitoring the situation and planning for the future. Join us at this seminar to hear the latest on:

- What we know about COVID-19:
 - How it spreads
 - How it presents
 - Emerging treatment options
 - Who it affects
- The local, national and global pictures
- What Community & Public Health is doing
 - Investigating cases, finding and managing contacts
 - Safety at the borders
 - Managing isolation and quarantine
 - Surveillance testing
 - Responding to community needs – mental health and wellbeing
- What the future might look like
- How we can work together

Tuesday 3 November 2020, 1:00 to 2:30 pm
Blue Room, Salvation Army, 853 Colombo Street
